

The Articles of Association specifically relating to Shareholders' Meeting1. Setting the date and agenda of the Shareholders' Meeting*Setting the Shareholder registration book closing date, the date and agenda of the shareholders' meeting

Article 13 During a period of 21 days prior to the date of meeting, the Company may close the shareholder registration book and suspend any transfer of shares by making an announcement at the Company's head office including all of its branches at least 14 days prior to the date on which such shares transfer suspension is commenced.

Article 32 The Board of Directors shall convene an annual general meeting of shareholders within four months from the last day of the accounting period of the Company.

Meetings other than those specified above shall be called the Extraordinary Meeting. The Board of Directors may summon an Extraordinary Meeting whenever it deems appropriate or one or more shareholders holding the aggregate number of shares of not less than ten percent of the total number of shares sold may, by subscribing their names, request the Board of Directors in writing to call an Extraordinary Meeting at any time, provided that the reasons for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in the said request. In this regard, the Board of Directors shall proceed to call a meeting of shareholders to be held within forty-five days from the date the request in writing from the shareholders is received.

In case that the Board of Directors fails to arrange for the meeting within the said period under paragraph two, the shareholders who have subscribed their names or other shareholders holding the required aggregate number of shares may themselves call the meeting within forty-five days from the date of expiration of the period under paragraph two. In such case, the meeting is deemed to be shareholders' meeting called by the Board of Directors and the Company shall be responsible for necessary expenses as may be incurred in the course of convening such meeting and the Company shall reasonably provide facilitation.

In the case where, at the meeting called by the shareholders under paragraph three, the number of the shareholders presented does not constitute a quorum as prescribed by this Article of Association, the shareholders under paragraph three shall jointly compensate the Company for the expenses incurred in arrangements for holding that meeting.

Article 33 In summoning a shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall issue meeting notice specifying the venue, date, time, agenda and related information with clear objective for each agenda whether for acknowledgement, approval or consideration plus the Board's opinion. Such notice shall be sent to shareholders at least 7 days prior to the meeting and promulgated in daily newspaper for three consecutive days at least 3 days prior to the meeting.

The shareholders' meeting shall be held at the location of head office or any other place as the Board of Directors deem appropriate.

- Article 38 An annual general meeting of shareholders shall be summoned for the following purposes:
- (1) Considering and acknowledging the annual report of the Board of Directors;
